23 Jan' 23 Semantics Assignment

1. What are the new things introduced in HTML5 ?

Ans - Various new features are introduced in HTML 5 to allow web developers to make more engaging and interactive content for the web. It includes various semantic tags which are some of the self explanatory tags which can be used to increase the readability of code and can directly or indirectly impact the businesses to grow more.

2. What are semantic tags? Give a couple of examples.

Ans- Semantic tags are some of the self explanatory tags whose work can easily be understood by their name only. They are mainly used to increase the readability of the codes so that other developers can also understand our code easily, it also improves accessibility and helps to improve SEO for the website. It also makes code easy and simple to understand.

3. List some uses of semantic tags.

Ans - Some uses of Semantic tags are -
   a. Makes code easy to read and understand
   b. Improve readability and maintainability
   c. Better SEO
   d. Improved Accessibility
   e. Better representation of code